Next call November 1st 2013

Stay tuned, get ready, next time don't let it slip

At Inova we support digital-oriented startups for the Middle East.

Incubation?

We tell how we're different in 56 seconds

We invest in your talent

We're looking for

Smart, fun and hard-working teams willing to give their best during 3 months.

Technology-oriented ideas or projects interested in the Middle East market.

Availability to relocate to Dubai and work exclusively on your business

We appreciate diversity and originality. If you believe in your idea we do as well.

We care about your needs

25k

Seed fund for your project so you can focus on your business fulltime

Someone to guide you at every step of the process

Office Space to work with us closely on a daily basis

All the advice you need from experts in different fields like marketing, business, design, development, legal.

A fun and creative environment surrounded by very talented people

Access to revenue pipeline and big exposure in our network

This is what will happen down the road...

1 Application time

Send us your idea

You will be able to apply using our form, That easy!
From all those great ideas submitted we'll select the 10 that better adapts to our program. It will depend on:

- which area they are related to.
- Their development stage and time framework.
- Their commercialization potential

Either if your idea is selected or if it isn't, we'll let you know by mail.

2 Team interviews

Let us get to know you better

During the next month we'll interview each team (via Skype) from the first screening to get to know more about their ideas. We are very interested in knowing what are their motivations and expectations.

We'll pick the 5 best out of these interviews.

3 Dubai Weekend Startup event

Delight us with your astonishing pitch

The top 5 teams will visit Dubai to make a pitch for a group of experts. It'll be their last chance to show how wonderful their ideas are.

However, we won't leave them alone. We'll offer a training course for a weekend so they'll learn tips to improve not only their pitch but also other relevant points like their business model.

Finally, our experts will announce the winner team.

4 Welcome to incubation program

Start to develop your business

First of all, congratulations! If your team is here is because you are the ones we fell in love with. We'll get to work immediately and agree on which goals you want to achieve during the program.

We can't wait!

We care about your needs
